Executive Committee (Acting on Behalf of Board)

Thursday, December 19, 2019 President's Report

A. North Carolina Partnership for Children (NCPC) Updates / DCDEE Updates / Legislative Updates

- 10. NCPC New CAD guidelines for CCR&R Activity were presented at the ED Forum on December 10. There will be a webinar in January and a three-year rollout for implementing the new guidelines. 1000Feathers presented the final version of the Simple Rules for engagement within the Smart Start network. These are guidelines to follow in all interactions between NCPC and the network, thus strengthening our work. Work will continue to implement these strategies. The position for NCPC President has been posted. NCPC's Annual Report for FY 18/19 to the General Assembly was submitted early December. NCPC's board has approved their Strategic Roadmap for 2019-2029. We will be reviewing it for alignment with PFC's strategic plan. NCPC has adopted Paid Parental Leave effective January 2020. The draft Early Childhood Indicators by county were released this week.
- 2. DCDEE—The Regional contract for Healthy Social Behavior is under review by DHHS, but should be forthcoming shortly. Regional monitoring was completed by Southwestern Child Development Commission last week. NC Pre-K attendance has been submitted through November. Payments have been processed through November for private providers and Action Pathways. Without a state budget, no additional funds beyond current, recurring funds are coming from DCDEE. The federal Office of Child Care will be conducting an onsite CCDF monitoring visit April 21-23, 2020. There could be visits out to CCR&Rs and local partnerships. DCDEE is awaiting notification for the federal Preschool Development Grant submitted in November. The Subsidy freeze for DSS was lifted October 1. Counties can determine their priorities for funding. AWARD$ wage supplements for teachers who work with infants and toddlers can now be accessed by Family Child Care Homes effective October 1. Regulatory Rules around Environmental Health will require childcare centers to test all drinking water within one year, new centers on application. This will then have to be done every three years. This will fall under Sanitation inspections. There is a recommendation (not requirement) for vaccinations and flu shots for childcare providers.
- 3. NC Legislature Bills to watch (S212/S634/H882): there is still discussion around the workforce development bills and proposals that will take concerns of providers into consideration. The legislature is expected to go back in session January 14.
- B. Leandro Report Two years ago, the parties agreed to settle the case. In order to reach a settlement, the court ordered a comprehensive report. The court-directed WestEd report was released last week. The report offers extensive recommendations to improve education in North Carolina, including substantial new investment in early childhood programs at a total of more than $1 billion over the next eight years. The total projected cost of the settlement is $8 billion. In addition to the WestEd report, a separate Leandro Commission report will go to the courts. Once these reports go to the courts and are reviewed, a court order will be issued. The case revolves around the state's responsibility to ensure a sound and basic education for all North Carolina children. Later court rulings included early childhood education and recommendations cover early childhood as well as K-12 education.

C. Grant Opportunities/Updates

- 1. Infrastructure Grant Opportunities: Due to changes at the state and federal level in the Community Block Development Grant through the City of Fayetteville's Economic and Community Development Department, this will most likely not be an option for the Partnership. We are investigating other funding sources, including the Golden LEAF Foundation and the Cannon Foundation. Steve Fleming continues his assessment of building needs and once his report is available, this will help inform future grant applications. We expect the report by the end of December.
- D. Healthy Opportunities Pilots RFP. These pilots will present a chance to test and evaluate the impact of providing select evidence-based, non-medical interventions related to housing, food, transportation and interpersonal safety to high-needs Medicaid enrollees. Pilots will operate in two to four geographic regions of the state. Our partner, Carolina Collaborative Community Care (4C) will be applying, with the intent of covering a seven county region including Cumberland, Robeson, Harnett, Hoke, Sampson, Scotland and Richmond. This work has the potential to mesh with the work we are doing with Family Connects. The RFP will be due in January and 4C is requesting letters of support. In addition, we will be reaching out to our counterparts in the Smart Start network to submit letters of support for this regional effort.

E. Events

1. NC Pre-K Recruitment Day – Save the date! Saturday, February 29, 2020, 9:00 am – 3:00 pm at the Cumberland County Health Department. All hands on deck. More details to come.

Introduction

Dear Members of the North Carolina General Assembly:

It is our pleasure to provide the North Carolina Partnership for Children/Smart Start 2018 – 2019 Annual Report in response to G.S. 143B-168.12(d).

As North Carolina continues its tradition of leadership and innovation in early childhood, the strength of the Smart Start network is a key asset for extending early childhood programs and services to communities across the state. The Smart Start network draws on the collaborative relationships, accumulated knowledge and experience, and shared mission of 75 local partnerships and the North Carolina Partnership for Children (NCPC) to serve as the early care and education system for our state.

In 2019, NCPC embarked on two initiatives that highlight and reinforce the Smart Start network's central place in North Carolina's early childhood system. First, NCPC began an update to its strategic roadmap. Based on conversations with NCPC board members, Smart Start local partnerships, and statewide partner organizations, NCPC's next strategic roadmap will embrace the network's role in implementing a statewide vision for early childhood. NCPC has also been working with all local partnerships in strengthening the collaboration and coordination across the network, as well as the feedback loops that are so critical for policymakers and state leaders to understand what is happening in North Carolina's communities.

As North Carolina continues to lead the country when it comes to early care and education, and Smart Start further grows as the early childhood system that is the envy of other states, we are well positioned to take the North Carolina Early Childhood Action Plan and move it to implementation in a way that will change the lives of our state's youngest children and their families. All these pieces are critical to our state's future prosperity.

Sincerely,

Cindy Watkins, President, The North Carolina Partnership for Children/Smart Start

The Smart Start Network

Smart Start is a network of 75 nonprofit local partnerships that serve all 100 North Carolina counties. This network is led by The North Carolina Partnership for Children (NCPC) which ensures fiscal and programmatic accountability and coordinates a statewide network to create better outcomes for children and families.

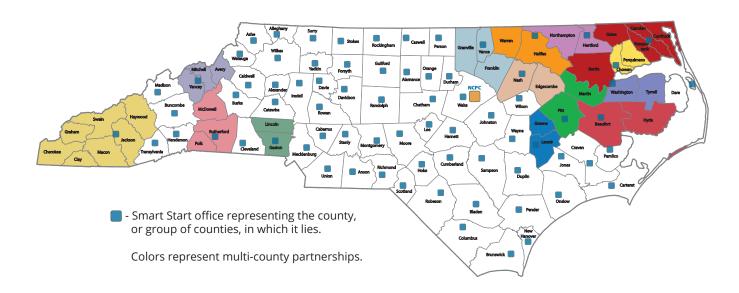

Children are born ready to learn but may not have access to the experiences or environments that foster healthy brain development, such as engaged child-parent interaction, quality child care, and excellent health care. When we provide communities, early childhood professionals, and families with the tools and resources they need so that every child is nurtured and cared for from birth, we ensure quality early childhood learning opportunities and healthy brain development.

Smart Start brings communities together—parents, early learning and health professionals, educators, business people, elected officials, public safety—to plan better coordination of services and address service gaps based on data. Smart Start also provides the tools and resources communities need to fully engage young children in learning opportunities, so they can grow to be healthy, productive, and well-rounded students, parents, workers, and leaders.

This structure establishes a system for statewide governance and innovation with local inspiration that works in communities across our state.

Serving children birth to five, Smart Start works across the state to raise the quality of child care, strengthen families, advance child health and development, and improve early literacy. The network implements other state, federal, local, and private programs and services, such as NC Pre-K, child care subsidy, and Head Start, serving as North Carolina's system for early childhood health, development, and learning.

How It Works

At the state level, NCPC works to ensure data driven results and accountability for the entire network, as well as make sure state investments are producing strong outcomes for children. The Smart Start Resource Guide of Evidence-Based and Evidence-Informed Programs and Practices provides local partnerships with evidence on program outcomes to support informed budget choices that produce targeted results for communities. In addition, continuous fiscal and quality monitoring ensures effectiveness and helps promote innovation. This includes:

- Training local partnership board members and staff on fiduciary oversight, thus protecting accountability in all financial processes from budget oversight to contract management
- Monitoring local partnerships to ensure compliance with state and federal laws, legislative mandates, and state policies
- Supporting centralized accounting and contracting that promote efficiency for the network
- Guiding local partnerships toward selection and implementation of evidence-based, evidence-informed programs to achieve the best outcomes for children
- Assessing community assets and needs to determine how best to invest Smart Start funds to impact child well-being
- Reviewing programs at the local level to ensure services are targeting and addressing unique community needs, and not duplicative of other investments
- Facilitating the sharing of resources, innovative ideas, and solutions across the Smart Start network so that individual counties benefit from a collective knowledge rather than wasting public resources on a problem that has already been solved in another county
- Maintaining a centralized portal for collection of programmatic data including numbers served and outcomes for each activity
- Disaggregating and providing access to county level measures of child well-being collected from state agencies to inform community planning

In local communities, local partnerships have the flexibility to use data-driven decision making to determine how to improve the health, well-being, and development of their children based on the needs and resources of their local communities. They support the needs of families and children during this critical developmental period by using a combination of state, federal, local, and private funds to provide comprehensive services and programs that support and strengthen this early development by:

- Ensuring child care is high quality, child-focused, and family-friendly
- Providing subsidy services and access to high quality early education
- Supporting NC Pre-K providers and providing family assistance
- Advancing child health and development through child care centers and medical practices
- Supporting families with programs that improve parenting skills and promote involvement with their child's education
- Promoting early literacy with programs that assist parents, and child care and medical providers
- Ensuring sustainable implementation of evidence-based early childhood services
- Working with community child-serving organizations to improve coordination and alignment of services

With statewide governance and local data-driven decision making, the Smart Start network acts as an effective and efficient planning and delivery mechanism for North Carolina's early childhood system. The network not only provides programs and services to families and children, but also supports shared learning and innovation, allows for flexibility to address problems and assure opportunity for young children, and leverages other public and private dollars, making North Carolina a leader in early childhood care and education.

Funding

Smart Start has always been a national model for public - private partnership. The public funding creates an early childhood system and infrastructure that allows private dollars to get to communities quickly, efficiently, and with significant impact to children and families. By investing in collaboration and collective impact initiatives across our network, we build local community capacity to leverage existing resources. In the 2018-2019 fiscal year, local partnership expenditures of state Smart Start funds totaled $141.06 million. In addition, NCPC expended $5.12 million. Of this, $1.89 million were local partnership funds managed by NCPC to meet legislative requirements, including the fiscal accountability system and local partnership audits, as well as to help local partnerships build their capacity. The remaining $3.23 million was used by NCPC to ensure that Smart Start fully met all legislatively-mandated requirements and operated to the highest standards of fiscal and programmatic integrity.

NCPC provides leadership in best practices and evidence-based, evidence-informed services, as well as non-profit and fund development.

With the highest standards of accountability, North Carolina's early childhood system efficiently moves resources to serve children. Together, the 76 separate organizations (NCPC and 75 independent local partnerships) effectively budgeted resources, reverting only 1.03 percent of the 2018-2019 Smart Start funds.

Because Smart Start provides the infrastructure in each local community to deliver results, federal, local, and private funders have invested millions of dollars in North Carolina's early childhood system. In the 2018-2019 fiscal year, NCPC and the Smart Start local partnerships together leveraged an additional $39.3 million for the state's young children including $26.8 million in cash and $12.5 million from in-kind contributions.

Raising the Quality of Early Care and Education

A long-term priority for Smart Start has been increasing the quality of early care and education across the state. The goal is to promote high quality early care that is child-focused and family-friendly. In North Carolina, licensed child care facilities have star ratings between 1 and 5 stars, with 5 stars being the highest. Smart Start supports initiatives that improve the quality or maintain the high quality (4-5 stars) of child care centers, ensure access to high quality centers for children, and help child care providers by offering professional development and technical assistance.

Raising the Star Ratings and Ensuring Community Support for Child Care

Smart Start works to create a strong foundation for programs and services to achieve successful outcomes as they are implemented and facilitated in centers that have 4 or 5 star ratings,

Spotlight on:

retain educated and qualified teachers, promote health and physical activity, and engage parents. NCPC works with statewide partners to ensure the latest research and effective programs are applied across the state, while local partnerships work directly with child care centers. Over the past several years, this focus on quality improvement has dramatically improved the landscape of early care and education in North Carolina. In fact, the average star rating for children enrolled in regulated early child care and education programs has jumped from 2.76 in 2001 to 4.31 in 2019. Smart Start works directly with child care centers in each county to understand where the greatest needs for quality enhancements are, including environmental ratings, teacher education and skill-building, and health and nutrition.

Smart Start also works to bring together communities in a way that supports child care needs in their area. This means not only working with individual child care centers, but also supporting funding that comes into local communities to support child care needs, ensuring positive transitions for children from child care to kindergarten, and helping centers raise awareness within their communities about how critical child care is to economic development.

This ability to target and address the needs of each center means:

- In New Hanover County, Smart Start of New Hanover County received a large donation to support families and child care sites after Hurricane Florence. The partnership worked with the county Department of Social Services to identify those who needed further assistance. The efforts and money ensured consistent care for fifty-five children, eased the financial burden of thirty-five families, and secured income for sixteen childcare businesses affected by the storm.
- In Transylvania County, Smart Start of Transylvania County provided socioemotional training to all preschool teachers in the community. The partnership is equipping teachers with the skills needed to work with children showing signs of trauma.
- In Halifax and Warren Counties, all children in NC Pre-K classrooms received backpacks from Halifax-Warren Smart Start Partnership to help bridge the summer reading gap. These backpacks included activities for children and valuable information to parents. Parents have reported these backpacks have been put to good use throughout the summer.

Infrastructure Support for NC Pre-K

Across the Smart Start network, local partnerships partner with NC Pre-K providers to help eligible four-year-olds access the program. Partnerships also co-chair the NC Pre-K Committees in all counties, administer the NC Pre-K program in 55 counties through a separate contract with the Division of Child Development and Early Education, and provide an additional $8,700,000 of funding to NC Pre-K across the state to ensure high quality services and increase access for children. Because there is local flexibility in how NC Pre-K is administered, Smart Start is able to support the program in ways that best meet the needs of families and school systems, which means:

- In Rowan County, Rowan Smart Start provided technical assistance to a NC Pre-K classroom with a child exhibiting aggressive behavior. The partnership staff established a plan for the child within the class and visitied the classroom to provide support. Due to the consistent support, the child established calming strategies when stressed, interacted with peers, and participated in group activities.
- In Robeson County, the Robeson County

 Partnership for Children worked diligently to supply transportation services for families enrolled at a local childcare center. Due to the efforts of the local partnership, young children were able to attend NC Pre-K regularly and parents were able to talk to school personnel.

A Value Add to Subsidy Funds – Supporting Both Children and Parents

For years, Smart Start subsidy funds have been used to increase the quality of early child care and education in the state. Many Smart Start local partnerships manage subsidy funds within their communities to boost quality and promote access for children who are at the highest risk. NCPC supports subsidy innovation by sharing success stories across the network so they may be replicated or adapted in other counties. This ability to be innovative with subsidy dollars to address local needs means:

- In Gaston County, a single working mother received valuable assistance due to subsidy funds provided by the Gaston-Lincoln Partnership for Children. She now has spending money to provide other needed items for her family.
- In Dare County, the Children and Youth Partnership's Parent Education and Childcare Resource and Referral Staff provided support and guidance to a mother for education. Today, the mother is enrolled in early childhood education classes and her children attend high quality childcare programs made possible through subsidies.

Supporting North Carolina Families

Recent research has proven the tremendous long-term benefits of family support and home visiting programs. Studies of these programs have highlighted improved maternal and child health, increased maternal employment, and improved school readiness. Research has also produced new insights on the importance of parent-child interaction, managing behavior, and preparing children to enter school healthy and ready to succeed.

Smart Start offers family-focused programs that improve parenting and promote involvement. NCPC supports these programs by evaluating the emerging evidence around parent strengthening and engagement programs and providing technical assistance on how to implement them effectively. Parenting education programs give parents tools to increase their knowledge of early childhood development and positive parenting practices. Home visiting programs help new parents and parents-to-be by providing education, information, and resources. This dedication to a whole-family approach means:

Spotlight on:

• In Mecklenburg County, the Mecklenburg Smart Start funded the Safe Journey Program, part of Parents as Teachers, which provides support to teen parents.

One parent received crucial support from Safe Journey as he unexpectedly became a single father at seventeen. The program has eliminated his need for child care through subsidy assistance. He has also been able to re-enroll in high school and is on track to receive his diploma!

- In Beaufort and Hyde Counties, the Facilitated Playgroups funded by the Beaufort-Hyde Partnership for Children provide interactive early-learning experiences for children 18 months to five years. One parent has reported that bringing her children to the playgroup has helped them follow instructions, listen during group time, and prepare for Kindergarten.
- In Sampson County, the Sampson County
 Partnership for Children administers
 Parents as Teachers (PAT) to assist families.
 One family was finding it difficult to evaluate their nonverbal toddler. Due to a PAT facilitated discussion with a local doctor and an evaluation, the child is now receiving crucial services from a pre-school classroom and is speaking.
- In Wake County, Wake Smart Start'sNurse-Family Partnership program supported a young teen mother. A Nurse Home Visitor worked with the mother to ensure she had the academic support she needed to be successful. Through her support, she was able to graduate from high school and is now pursuing a nursing degree at UNC-Greensboro.

Promoting Early Literacy

Literacy affects our state's ability to create a workforce needed to compete in the global market and ensure our future prosperity.

Recognizing that a majority of language development occurs in the first few years of life, Smart Start provides programs that develop early literacy skills needed for success in school, work, and life. Smart Start brings proven national programs to the children and families of North Carolina.

Funding was allocated to NCPC to increase access to Dolly Parton's Imagination Library (DPIL), an early literacy program that mails age-appropriate books on a monthly basis to registered children under Session Law 2017-57, Section 11B.9.(a). During the 2017 legislative session, the General Assembly allocated $10 million to DPIL, resulting in rapid expansion of the program with the goal of the program being available for every child in the state under the age of five. The Smart Start network was able to quickly get that funding out into communities. In less than two years, every child under the age of five in North Carolina now has access to DPII

Spotlight on:

This comprehensive approach to providing programs in a variety of settings, as well as offering resources to children and parents means:

- In Stanly County, the Stanly CountyPartnership for Children provided support in a Motheread session to a mother who had a son with autism. The mother had a child that passed away due to a tragic accident but grew to look forward to Motheread as it was a great resource to implement with her son and a place for her to find comfort and healing. The partnership also referred the mother to grief counseling and provided further resources for her family.
- In Carteret County, the Carteret County

 Partnership for Children funds Story

 Explorer's Program. This literacy-based program provides hands-on learning for both child and parent. Children can socialize with other children while receiving a structured early education experience.
- In Pender County, the Smart Start of Pender County funded program Raising a Reader (RAR) led one child to her first visit to the library. Raising a Reader allows children to receive a bag of books each week on a rotation. Parents receive training in best practices for reading to their child.

Advancing Child Health and Nutrition

Healthy behavior patterns established early in life often lead to lifelong benefits and decreased probability of serious disease later in life. Smart Start strives to improve outcomes for children by working with medical providers, health departments, families, and communities to improve the health and safety of young children, prevent childhood obesity, and ensure more children are screened for developmental delays and referred to services for help long before they start school.

This focus on instilling healthy habits early and working to change the environments children spend a significant amount of time in means:

In Nash and Edgecombe Counties, the Down-East Partnership for Children focused on healthy eating and gardening when working with a new child care provider. The center director was able to shift the center's culture, obtain further

- funding to transform the outdoor space with a trike track, and buy further outdoor equipment to increase physical activity.
- In Haywood County, the Region A Partnership for Children coordinated efforts to develop an outdoor learning environment at a local childcare site. With assistance from the partnership's Child Care Health Consultant, the center learned how to engage with parents and local businesses to develop outdoor learning centers.
- In Cumberland County, an Assuring Better Child Health and Development (ABCD) coordinator from the Cumberland Partnership for Children, discovered a grandmother could not provide crucial medical services to her grandchild due to transportation costs to a distant hospital.
 Due to the referral, the child was able to have a Gastrostomy tube removed and is receiving further medical assistance.

Enhancing Sustainability for Early Childhood Infrastructure

As the network of Smart Start local partnerships works to enhance support to families, early childhood professionals, and the communities they serve, NCPC works at the state level to strengthen coordination of early childhood governance, as well as ensure the network is meeting and responding to all legislative mandates and changes.

NCPC joined the leadership team of Think Babies™ NC in 2018. Funded by ZERO TO THREE and the Pritzker Children's Initiative, Think Babies™ NC is a coalition of North Carolina state partners supporting a shared policy agenda to improve outcomes for children prenatal to age three and their families. The coalition adopted eight policy priorities focused on infant and toddler health, family support, and access to quality early care and learning.

After receiving dedicated state appropriations for Dolly Parton's Imagination Library of $3.5 million in fiscal year 2017-18 and $7 million in fiscal year 2018-19, Smart Start has continued to expand the program statewide. From the beginning of expansion in 2017 to the end of the 2019 fiscal year, more than 240,000 children were enrolled in the program, receiving more than 2.1 million books in total. Local partnerships have additionally reported DPIL has increased families' awareness of Smart Start and the other early childhood programs the network offers.

As part of the federal Preschool Development Grant awarded to the Department of Health and Human Services at the end of 2018, NCPC has taken a lead role in developing plans to increase family engagement in early childhood systems across the state. In partnership with the Division of Child Development and Early Education, NCPC is co-leading the development of a statewide action plan for increased family engagement in early care and education settings. NCPC additionally awarded subgrants to 10 Smart Start local partnerships to develop community-level family engagement action plans.

Working with the Division of Public Health, UNC-Chapel Hill, and almost 40 other state and community stakeholders, NCPC has also been a critical partner in a systems planning initiative for home visiting and parenting education. Over a series of seven meetings that began in May 2019, the Home Visiting and Parent Education (HVPE) Systems Planning Team will develop a statewide vision and action plan to expand home visiting and parent education programs across the state. This collaboration has attracted interested from other funding sources including six philanthropic organizations. The HVPE Systems Planning Team will consider the infrastructure needed for implementation, equity, and integration with prenatal to five systems, and program impact in developing an action plan.

NCPC has been fortunate to partner with BlueCross BlueShield of North Carolina Foundation for several years to improve nutrition and physical activity practices in child care setting to promote healthy weight for young children. With support from DCDEE, using Child Care Development Funds, NCPC is now supporting local partnerships to focus assistance on infant and toddler programs and assisting families to decrease food insecurity.

A Comprehensive Approach to Early Childhood

Recognizing that children only thrive when their environment supports optimum growth and whole-child development, NCPC has developed a long-term strategic plan focusing on the health and wellness of the people and communities who influence and support young children's healthy development and growth.

In looking forward to the 2020 legislative session, NCPC will support the following areas of work:

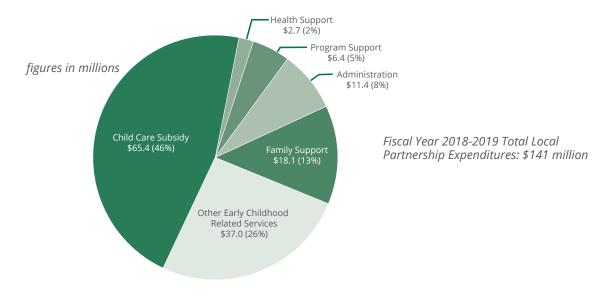

- Ensuring comprehensive funding for the Smart Start network. The 2019 legislative conference budget proposed an additional appropriation of $2 million in nonrecurring funds for each year of the 2019-2021 biennium. If passed into law, this would represent the first increase in unrestricted state appropriations for Smart Start since fiscal year 2007-2008. However, even accounting for these proposed funds, North Carolina's total investment in Smart Start has declined by nearly 35 percent since 2000-2001. As the backbone of North Carolina's early childhood system, Smart Start requires a greater state investment to ensure that more children reach kindergarten ready to learn and succeed.
- Expanding access to programs that nurture strong families. Parents play the most active and significant role in their baby's healthy development. Young children learn and grow in strong families where parents can successfully face the challenges of caring for their children while meeting their work and other responsibilities. Parenting education programs give parents tools to increase their knowledge of early childhood development and positive parenting practices, and home visiting programs help new parents and parents-to-be by providing education, information, and resources.

- Strengthening the early care and education system. Studies show children who are in high quality early learning environments enter school with better math, language, and social skills. These settings include sensitive and responsive caregiving, engaging and stimulating play, and a safe and healthy environment for all children. Smart Start supports policies and investments that:

Smart Start is a network of 75 local partnerships across North Carolina that provide expertise, guidance and infrastructure to ensure each child in the state receives the care and nurturing they need to thrive. Each local partnership is tailored to meet the specific needs of their community as they invest in early education, literacy, health and family support.

The North Carolina Partnership for Children (NCPC) guides and facilitates the Smart Start network, supporting the work of local partnerships and connecting them to the statewide early childhood system. NCPC develops policy for Smart Start programs and services and ensures accountability. This Strategic Roadmap sets the course for NCPC for the next ten years.

ABOUT THIS ROADMAP

In 2016, NC Partnership for Children (NCPC) approved a Strategic Roadmap with two 10-year goals each with a set of three-year objectives. In 2019, the NCPC Board appointed a task force of staff, board members, and a representative from the Local Partnership Advisory Committee to update the Roadmap. With guidance from Third Space Studio, the Task Force examined trends with the potential to shape the future of NCPC and its network, interviewed leaders from state agencies and partners for their perspective on NCPC's strengths and challenges, and assessed progress on the goals and objectives outlined in the Roadmap. This work led the task force to revise the goals and objectives to better reflect the call for NCPC to claim. a stronger leadership role in the state. The revised Roadmap also builds on recent work to strengthen the brand of Smart Start as well as recent explorations into ways to strengthen the network of local partnerships.

I. Action Taken

The Planning and Evaluation (P&E) Committee meeting minutes were reviewed and approved unanimously as presented.

II. Information

Planning and Evaluation (P&E) staff updated the committee on:

- Personnel
- Updated CAD modifications for FY 2019-20 after review by NCPC, including modifications for those approved by the PFC Board (NC Pre-K TANF and NON TANF and FTCC Subsidy).
- Changes in how Professional Development will manage a change in requirement for prospective ECE scholarship recipients who must now go the T.E.A.C.H. program to determine eligibility.
- Preparations for Monitoring, which will begin in February 2020.

The committee was provided with an overview of the Annual Report draft for discussion on what is recommended that best represents PFC to the community (content) and consideration of format. Generally, it was recommended that for a community audience that information be streamlined and targeted to highlights and put into a smaller format for easy distribution that will be more easily digested.
